In the Early Opening Hours It Sold as Low as 88.

The Rise Said to Be Due to an Inexperienced Broker's Blunder.

The Stock Exchange was the scene of eild excitement this morning, owing to the remarkable gyrations of American Sugar Refining stock: At the opening the price was jammed down 2, to 88, and a good many buyers at the highest fig. ures of yesterday became alarmed and COTTON UP-COFFEE DOWN. sold out.

The stock dropped right into the laps of the bulls, who had set a trap for the bears. Slowly the price crept 30, and then by more rapid stages got up to 93. up to 93.

At this juncture the bears became panic-stricken, and rushing to cover, bid prices up on themselves. In a few moments the stock reached 100 amid wild

Still later there was a rally to $5.3-4.
The dealings were on an enormous scale, and the bulls were wild with glee at this, their first really successful move against the shorts in months.

There were a good many theories as to the operators who had been caught. That they include Washington as well as New York speculators goes almost without saying. One of the reports was that a leading bear had settled privately at par on a line of 25,000 shares.

Naturally the bears in other stocks were frightened, and under their purchases as general advance ensued.

Chicago Gas rose 13-8 to 65.8, St. Paul 5-8 to 61.8, Rose 15-8 to 61.8, Distillers 11.8 to 25.7-8, Burlington & Quincy 7-8 to 79.7-8, Western Union 11-4 to 87.1-2, Susquehanna Western preferred 3-4 to 63.4, and Pullman Palace 7-8 to 170. Lead fell 2 to 28, and later recovered its early loss.

Sometimes it is positively pathetic, talk griwing away from the old acquaintances of one's youth, especially when one looks forward impatiently to a visit from some old chum that one hasn't seen for a long time. The disappointment is so great. Taking it all in all, to me it seems to prove that the real lasting friendship is of the colder, more practical kind, and that the proper thing is do is to fight shy of these "undying.
